

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home.

We used to receive an average of 1 call per day, now only receive 1 every few weeks.

The Indiana's law has ben very effective and should be left alone.